GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. Policy Voidable

This policy shall be voidable in the event of misrepresentation, misdescription or non-disclosure in any material particular to be known for estimating the risk.

2. Alteration

This policy shall be avoided with respect to any of the property insured in regard to which there is any alteration after the commencement of this insurance:

- a. If the trade or manufacture carried on be altered, or if the nature of the occupation of or the circumstances affecting the building insured or containing the insured property be changed in such a way as to increase the risk of loss of damage by fire,
- b. If the building insured or containing the insured property become unoccupied and so remains for a period of more than 30 days;
- c. If the property insured be removed to any building or place other than in which it is herein stated to be insured;
- d. If the interest of the insured ceases except by will or operation of law.

3. Warranties

Every warranty to which this policy or any item thereof is or may be made subject shall from the time the warranty attaches apply to continue to be in force during the whole currency of this policy. Non-compliance with any such warranty whether it increases the risk or not shall be a bar to any claim in respect of such DAMAGE.

4. Reasonable Precautions

The insured shall take all reasonable precautions to prevent DAMAGE.

5. Cancellation

The company may cancel this policy at any time by giving to the insured 30 days notice in writing and in such event will return to the insured the premium paid less the pro-rata portion for the period the policy has been in force. This policy may also be terminated at any time by the insured on written notice and provided no claim has arisen during the current period of insurance, the insured shall be entitled to a return of premium less premium at the Company's short period rate for the time the policy has been in force.

6. Condition of Average-Under Insurance

If the property hereby insured shall, at the breaking out of any fire, be collectively of greater value than the sum insured thereon, then the Insured shall be considered as being his own insurer for the difference and shall bear a ratable proportion of the loss accordingly. Every item, if more than one, of the policy shall be separately subject to this condition.

CLAIMS CONDITIONS

1. Action by the Insured

- a. In the event of DAMAGE the insured shall:
 - i. notify the company immediately.
 - ii. notify the police authority immediately it become evident that any DAMAGE has been caused by malicious persons.
 - iii. carry out and permit to be taken any action which may be reasonably practicable to prevent further DAMAGE.
- b. Deliver to the company at the insured's expense:
 - i. Full information in writing of the property lost, destroyed, or damaged and of the amount of DAMAGE.
 - ii. Details of any other insurances on any property hereby insured after such DAMAGE as soon as possible.
 - iii. All such proofs and information relating to the claim as may reasonably be required.
 - iv. If demanded, a statutory declaration of the truth of the claim and of any matters connected with it.
- c. No claim under this policy shall be payable unless the terms of this condition have been complied with.

2. Fraud

If a claim is fraudulent in any respect or if fraudulent means are used by the insured or by anyone acting on his behalf to obtain any benefit under this policy or if any DAMAGE is caused by the willful act or with the connivance of the insured all benefit under this policy shall be forfeited.

3. Reinstatement

If any property is to be reinstated or replaced by the company the Insured shall at his own expense provide all such plans, documents, and information as may be reasonably required. The Company shall not be bound to reinstate exactly but only as circumstances permit and in a reasonably sufficient manner and shall not in any case be bound to expend in respect of any one of the items insured more than its sum insured.

If in any case the company shall be unable to reinstate or repair the property hereby insured because of any municipal or other regulations in force affecting the alignment of streets, or the construction of buildings, or otherwise, the Company shall in every such case only be liable to pay such sum as would be requisite to reinstate or repair such property if the same could lawfully be reinstated to its former condition.

4. Company's Rights Following a Claim

On the happening of DAMAGE in respect of which a claim is made the Company and any person authorized by the Company may without thereby incurring any liability or diminishing any of the company's rights under this policy, enter, take or keep possession of the premises where such DAMAGE has occurred and take possession of or require to be delivered to the Company any property insured and deal with such property for all purposes and in any reasonable manner. No property may be abandoned to the Company whether taken possession of by the company or not.

5. Contribution

If at the time of any DAMAGE there is any other insurance effected by or on behalf of the insured covering any of the property lost destroyed or damaged the liability of the Company hereunder shall be limited to its ratable proportion of such DAMAGE.

6. Subrogation

Any claimant under this policy shall at the request and expense of the company take and permit to be taken all necessary steps for enforcing rights against any other party in the name of the Insured before or after any payment is made by the Company.

7. Arbitration

If any difference arises as to the amount to be paid under this policy (liability being otherwise admitted) such difference shall be referred to an arbitrator in accordance with the Ethiopian Law. Where any difference is by this condition to be referred to arbitration the making of an award shall be a condition precedent to any right of action against the company.
